HARRIET TARLO
FROM CUT FLOWERS cut flowers why would they when it came to it lasting longer long days before dawn sees a fair light crows & robins upright on the wall look out, learn to travel in deep time blood fish & bone, find new ventures prepare, parse, prey for vegetables offering a night’s accommodation only one understanding, staying there while dog eats breakfast neurotic we may not enjoy this maybe checking all the time still here really we made her she ate it apparently empty

waiting for the percentage to cut out access to screen stage writing in wood frame hostile hacking against running a temperature, then out night-gathering nuts & fruits, moulden berries lowly land, we lost years of it (in this country) when all came sliding, side-fall in all of all quietside before spring dives too early draws out dawn grows colder enlightens earlier everyday too late for address redress some kind of season slept at all the wrong tones, tines slower than warmer, the train
