Walking Cities: London

Edited by *Jaspar Joseph-Lester, Simon King,
Amy Blier-Carruthers and Roberto Bottazzi*

Through bringing together a new interdisciplinary field of artists, writers, architects, musicians, human geographers and philosophers Walking Cities: London considers how a city walk informs and triggers new processes of making, thinking, researching and communicating. In particular, the book examines how the city contains narratives, knowledge and contested materialities that are best accessed through the act of walking. Ultimately, Walking Cities: London seeks to understand the wider significance of changing geographies to generate critical questions and creative perspectives for navigating the social and political impact of rapid urban change.

Walking Cities: London will be launched at the Showroom Gallery on Wednesday 15 March, 6.30–8.30p.m.
