Participatory Citizenship

“(1) making sure society develops payment and insurance systems for long-term care that work better than existing ones,

(2) taking advantage of advances in medicine and behavioural health to keep the elderly as healthy and active as possible,

(3) changing the way society organizes community services so that care is more accessible, and

(4) altering the cultural view of aging to make sure all ages are integrated into the fabric of community life”

social status

Citizenship , inequalities and dis-citizenship

#1 It's a world of laughter,
a world of tears
It's a world of hopes,
and a world of fears
There's so much that we share
That it's time we're aware,
It's a small world after all.

Chorus:

#2 There is just one moon,
and one golden sun
and a smile means friendship to everyone
Though the mountains divide
And the oceans are wide,
It's a small world after all.

It's a small world after all, It's a small world after all,
It's a small world after all, it's a small, small world

NO IRISH NEED APPLY.

Written by JOHN F. POOLE, and sung, with immense success, by the great Comic-Vocalist of the age, TONY PASTOR.

I'm a dacint boy, just landed from the town of Ballyfad ;
I want a situation : yis, I want it mighty bad.
I saw a place advertised. It's the thing for me, says I ;
But the dirty spalpeen ended with : No Irish need apply.
Whoo ! says I ; but that's an insult — though to get the place I'll try.

So, I wint to see the blaggarr with : No Irish need apply.

I started off to find the house, I got it mighty soon ;
There I found the ould chap saited : he was reading
the TRIBUNE.

I tould him what I came for, whin he in a rage did fly :
No ! says he, you are a Paddy, and no Irish need apply !
Thin I felt my dander rising, and I'd like to black his eye—
To tell an Irish Gentleman : No Irish need apply !

I couldn't stand it longer : so, a hault of him I took,
And I gave him such a welting as he'd get at Donnybrook.
He hollered : Millia murther ! and to get away did try,
And swore he'd never write again : No Irish need apply.
He made a big apology ; I bid him thin good-bye,
Saying : Whin next you want a bating, add : No Irish need apply !

Sure, I've heard that in America it always is the plan
That an Irishman is just as good as any other man ;
A home and hospitality they never will deny
The stranger here, or ever say : No Irish need apply.
But some black sheep are in the flock : a dirty lot, say I ;
A dacint man will never write : No Irish need apply !

Sure, Paddy's heart is in his hand, as all the world does know,
His praties and his whiskey he will share with friend or foe ;
His door is always open to the stranger passing by ;
He never thinks of saying : None but Irish may apply.
And, in Columbia's history, his name is ranking high ;
Thin, the Divil take the knaves that write : No Irish need apply !

Ould Ireland on the battle-field a lasting fame has made ;
We all have heard of Meagher's men, and Corcoran's brigade.
Though fools may flout and bigots rave, and fanatics may cry,
Yet when they want good fighting-men, the Irish may apply,
And when for freedom and the right they raise the battle-cry,
Then the Rebel ranks begin to think : No Irish need apply
