

Bibliography of Useful Resources

Evidence Contributing Research Projects

Project Name	Researchers	Brief outline of research (mostly from 22/23 winter)	Resources
Wellbased	Lucie Middlemiss, Pepa Ambrosio Albalá	Qualitative interviews with 10 people living in a tower block in Leeds. Part of a wider EU study.	Website
Family & Community vulnerability to Net Zero (FCVNZ)	Carolyn Snell, Lucie Middlemiss, Emily Morrison	Participatory workshops with small groups of people in 7 neighbourhoods in Leeds and Newcastle during August & September 2022.	Website
JUSTHEAT	Aimee Ambrose	Collection of up to 400 oral histories of home heating transitions across four countries (UK, Sweden, Finland, Romania) including two UK case studies of communities lagging in the transition. Interdisciplinary, justice based analysis of the data (history, energy policy, architecture, political science) to distil lessons for a humane transition to low carbon heating.	Website (with publications)
Warm Spaces as Commons (WSaC)	Catherine Butler, Leila Dawney, Helena Hastie	Semi-structured interviews and ethnography with people in Exeter and East Devon using community warm spaces or hubs. Interviews with service providers about the provision and their experiences.
GECKO - EU Marie Skłodowska-Curie Innovative Training Network	Nikhil Sharma (with Citizen's Advice)	Semi-structured interviews with 12 energy stakeholders working with energy advice, fuel poverty research, consumer rights, energy supply, and energy trade in the UK and the EU.	Website (with publications)
Fuel and transport poverty in the UK energy transition (FAIR)	Mari Martiskainen, Neil Simcock, Stefan Bouzarovski	Data were collected in 2020-2022 (before the 22/23 winter) but findings are of relevance.
Disconnections by proxy (DisBP)	Ed Atkins, Sara Davies, Caitlin Robinson, Sharon Collard	Low income households' experiences of paying for energy in a cost of living crisis. Longitudinal qualitative research, including the keeping of financial diaries, with around 25 people.
