They have participated in numerous exhibitions and have collaborated on an art project at Zoologische Garten, Berlin, The Hum. The artists will be presenting this video piece, based on the encounter with a young woman in the Predator House and her relationship with one of the tigers.

SALON ZOO is brought to you by artists Lucy Powell and Andrea Roe and writer-curator Sara Barnes. Our new Salon series hosts artists, scientists, writers and curators in various venues in Berlin and the UK. We aim to establish stimulating dialogue around changing themes, leading to a productive network of interested individuals with an eye to facilitating art/science collaboration. Future themes for the Salon include 'Volcano', 'Ecology', 'Brain', 'Stars', 'Bird'.

LoBe is the ideal venue for SALON ZOO. LoBe is a new research-led contemporary art space which provides artists with an opportunity to develop their practice within an environment that promotes dialogue, collaboration, exhibition making and interdisciplinary research between Berlin and London
